

TREVOR MAY & THE NOMADS

"YA'LLTERNATIVE" | SOUTHERN ROCK | INDIE ROCK | HIGHLAND, IL

ABOUT THE BAND

Trevor May & The Nomads are an all-original, "Ya'llternative" rock band from the St. Louis area, fusing southern and alternative rock into a familiar yet distinctive sound. Known for their rich vocals, hard-driving guitars, and stylish fiddle melodies, the band hits somewhere between a backroad bar fight and a late-night highway soundtrack. Whether tearing it up at a local show or burning down the stage opening for touring artists, Trevor May & The Nomads bring rowdy bar energy fused with the soul of real southern storytelling — a sound that is unmistakably their own.

"Their sound blends dirty southern rock, country roots, and alt-rock grit... carving out its own lane inside the local St. Louis music scene."
